

Reproductive Justice in a (Post-)COVID World: Transnational Protest and Resistance

Panels and presentations

1. Abortion, maternity, and obstetric violence

- R Nandagiri et al. 'Precarity and Pills: Online Abortion Care Seeking from Poland During COVID 19'
- L Berro Pizzarossa et al. 'Constellations, Crisis, and Care: The Role of Women Help Women in COVID-19 shaped Abortion Trajectories'
 - S Calkin 'A Pill for Not Doing Abortion: The Multiple Lives of Mifepristone'
 - S Battashi & S Milton 'Motherhood and Chronic Illness in a British Somali Community'

2. Borders, reproductive violence, and environmental injustice

- M Davila Contreras 'River, Body, and Crisis: Toxic landscapes, and Reproductive Violence in Montes de Maria, Colombia.'
- G Rexler 'Mapping Reproductive Injustice: Borders, Citizenship in Israel and Palestine'
- M Yopo Diaz 'Against Precarity: Structural Fertility as Reproductive Justice'
 - S Felsberger 'Informational Capitalism and Reproductive Justice'

3. Reproductive stratification, eugenics, and population control

- H Jennings 'Nonconsensual Sterilisation at the ECHR: Vulnerability, Human Dignity, and Confronting Eugenics in Reproductive Healthcare'
 - A Grant, K Williams & A Brown 'Eugenics, Epistemic Injustice, and Traumatic Reproductive Healthcare: Historical and Contemporary Explorations of Autism'
 - M Espinosa 'Malthus in Mexico: The Mexican 'Demographic Explosion' and the National Production of Family Planning Firms 1970s to 1980s'
 - P Martin 'We are the Indigenous women You Could Not Sterilise: The Past and Present of Reproductive Justice in Peru'

Reproductive Justice in a (Post)COVID World: Transnational Protest and Resistance

4. Unusual suspects: Decriminalising abortion in Northern Ireland

Chaired by D Roberts

E Campbell 'Art as a Site of Protest and Resistance'

D Roberts 'Solidarity in Action: LGBTQ+ and Pro-Choice Activists in Northern Ireland'

K Turtle 'Alternative Conversations on Abortion, Faith, and Reproductive Justice'

5. Reproductive injustices and the many lives of women in the subcontinent

Chaired by S Chattopadhyay and A Majumdar

- A Majumdar 'Class, Caste and Privilege in Thinking about Surrogacy Research in India during COVID-19'
- M Matsuo 'Considering Everyday Ethics through Abortion and Reproductive Justice in Western India'
 - P Nahar 'Stratified Embodied Experiences of Childless Women of Bangladesh'
- E Matsuoka 'Policies aimed at achieving the Goals of MDGs/SDGs and their Effects on women's Experiences of Childbirth in Rural Bangladesh'
- F Towghi 'Defying and Surviving the Triple Injustices: Against Traditional Midwives, Women's Bodily Autonomy, and their Wellbeing in Pakistan'
- E Varley 'Obstetric Medicine's Nightside: A Hospital Ethnography of Clinical Precarity and Iatrogenesis in northern Pakistan.'

6. Reproductive autonomy and healthcare in the COVID-19 pandemic

- M Collins 'Black Mothers who are Sex Workers during COVID-19'
- V Browne 'Miscarriage in the UK During the COVID Pandemic: Isolation, Recognition, and Inequality'
 - F Bloomer et al. 'Access to Abortions in Prison Pre- and Post- COVID: A Reproductive Justice Perspective'
- Z Li & Y Luo 'Chinese Surrogate Motherhood under COVID-19: The Implication of Reproductive Justice'

Reproductive Justice in a (Post-)COVID World: Transnational Protest and Resistance

7. Queering reproductive justice

- D Leibetseder 'LGBTQI perspectives during COVID-19: Queer and Trans Reproduction'
- E Pecjak 'Freezing in a Frozen World: COVID-19 and Barriers to Egg Freezing among Trans and Gender Diverse Individuals in Canada'
- R Greiner & L Avery 'Care as Resistance: Atypical Activist Parents in the Struggle for Disability Justice'
- M Mostaghim 'Fat Bodies and Fertility – Is NICE Clinical Guidance 156 'Unjustifiably Extrapolated' to limit IVF for women with a High BMI?'
- R Van Der Waal 'Undercommoning Anthrogenesis: The Fugitive Otherworlds of Reproductive Justice'

8. Reproductive justicee beyond academia

Chaired by C Freeman

- L Morriss 'Marking Motherhood: The Tattoos of Mothers Living Apart from their Children' and 'Threads of Connection: Building Relationships through Post-Adoption Letter Exchange'
- T Fetters et al. 'Collaborating on Research-Based Animations for Adolescent Safer Abortion: A Conversation between Researchers, Creative Artists, and Non-Governmental Programme Staff'
 - E Barnett 'Yoldot Project: A Childbirth Facility Rating and Comparison App'
- C Furjanic 'Adventures in Miscarriage: An Irreverent Autoethnographic Film about Miscarriage'
- E Campbell 'Addressing Photography as a Feminist Activist Artist Practice in the Movement for Abortion Rights in North/ern Ireland'
- C Waltz, University College Cork. Writing ethnographic fiction on experiences with abortion care in Ireland since the repeal of the Eighth Amendment
- S Rodríguez 'Stories Weaving Together Reproductive and Environmental (In)justice in Cajamarca Peru'

9. Transnational organisingg as a portal towards liberation

Roundtable with D Davis, T Harris, and M Lord

Reproductive Justice in a (Post-)COVID World: Transnational Protest and Resistance

10. Incarceration, migration, and the law

- L Lowe 'Birthing Solidarity: Holding, Witnessing, and Advocating for Reproductive Justice in the British Hostile Environment'
 - K Kaelin 'Pregnancy, Birth and Maternity in Prisons in England'
 - T Avasthi & C Page 'Forced Sterilisation, Healing Justice, and ICE Detention Centres'
 - R Smyth 'Abortion Exceptionalism in International Human Rights Law'
- L Caruana-Finkel 'On the Collective-Symbolic: Reimagining RJ in Legally Restrictive Contexts'

11. Reproductive futures, embodied activism, and feminist pedagogies

- D Duffy et al. 'I could call them ghost organizations really, they barely do any work': Contested and Contesting International 'Allyship' in the African Pro-Abortion Activist Space'
- E Crowley 'Cristina Rivera-Garza's Feminist Materialism: Literary Strategies of Resistance in the Struggle for Reproductive Justice'
- C Fitzsimons 'Can Education Help? Feminist Pedagogy, Praxis, and Reproductive Rights'
- R Cromer and L Taragin-Zeller 'Reproductive Righteousness and Far-Right Extremism: Global Feminist Perspectives'
- J Jolly 'Black Women's Embodied Power and Political Mobilisation: From HIV/AIDS to COVID in the US and Jamaica'

12. Birth work and reproductive justice

- K Johnston and C McDougal 'Freedom, Choice and Freebirth: Post COVID Reflections on Birth Justice in a Hostile Context'
 - C Adams 'Douglas and Birth Workers as Agents of Social Change'
- K Leng 'Everything to Expect While You're Expecting: Embracing a Full Spectrum Approach to Pregnancy Losses'
 - A Hart 'BIPOC Led Birthing Centres in the United States During COVID-19'
- R Chadwick 'Knotty Questions: Procreative Labour, Violence, and the Reproductive Sphere'

Reproductive Justice in a (Post-)COVID World: Transnational Protest and Resistance

Day 1: Tuesday 18th April

08:00 Coffee and Registration

08:30 Introduction

09:00 Plenary 1: Benash Nazmeen (Online) 'Sabr, patience, exploring voices of ethnically marginalized groups and their experience of maternity care in the UK'

10:15 Panel 1: Abortion, Maternity, and Obstetric Violence

Panel 2: Borders, Reproductive Violence, and Environmental Injustice

12:00 Lunch and Posters

13:00 Panel 3: Reproductive Stratification, Eugenics, and Population Control

Panel 4: Unusual Suspects: Decriminalising Abortion in Northern Ireland

14:45 Coffee Break

15:00 Panel 5: Reproductive Injustices and the Many Lives of Women in the Subcontinent

Panel 6: Reproductive Autonomy and Healthcare during the COVID-19 Pandemic

16:45 Book Launch Decriminalizing Abortion in Northern Ireland (Dr. Fiona Bloomer and Dr. Emma Campbell)

17:45 Closing Remarks

18:00 Finish

Reproductive Justice in a (Post-)COVID World: Transnational Protest and Resistance

Day 2: Wednesday 19th April

08:30 Introduction and Registration

09:00 Panel 7: Queering Reproductive Justice

Panel 8: Reproductive Justice Beyond Academia

10:45: Coffee Break

11:00 Plenary 2: Dr. Nayla Luz Vacarezza 'Singing for Abortion Rights in Latin America: Movements, Cultural Politics, and Reproductive Justice'

12:45 Lunch and Posters

13:45 Panel 9: Transnational Organising as a Portal Towards Liberation

Panel 10: Incarceration, Migration, and the Law

15:30 Coffee Break

15:45 Panel 11: Reproductive futures, Embodied Activism, and Feminist Pedagogies

Panel 12: Birth Work and Reproductive Justice

17:30 Closing Remarks

17:45 Finish

Reproductive Justice in a (Post-)COVID World: Transnational Protest and Resistance

Poster Presentations

1. M Kerguelen 'The Role of Activist Networks in Providing Information about Abortion Care in Malta'
2. J Chen 'Mobilising Reproduction in COVID-19 Time: Border Control, and Kinship Recognition of Taiwanese Gay Father's Surrogacy Travel'
3. J Fernandez Molina 'Caring Amidst Fear: Asylum Seeking Mothers and the Acts of Making Life Possible'
4. X Cheng 'Chinese Families use of Assisted Reproductive Technologies During COVID'
5. A Tiew 'The Impact of COVID-19 on Safe Abortion Access in Africa: An Analysis Through a Framework of RJ and Structural Violence'
6. D Tomar & W Xu 'Preserve Abortion Access California Taskforce'
7. R Subramanian 'Marriages of Survival: From Girl, to Wife, and Worker in India'
9. L Hondebrink 'Trans Inclusive Language and Abortion Post Roe V Wade'
10. O Engle 'Abortion "At a Distance": A Rethinking Telemedicine as 'Placeless' Care in the Post COVID Post Roe Context'
11. L Happ 'Aborto Con Pastillas: Confluences of Healthcare Provision and Feminist Activism for Reproductive Justice in Post-COVID-19 Argentina'
12. R Brione 'Obscuring Meanings, Silencing Prohibitions: Authoritative Speech and Vaginal Examination in Labour'