Years 2 and 3 (HSPS Part II) – 2017-18
In Part II, you choose one 'track' from a range of 14 single and joint subject options

Single subject tracks:
- Sociology
- Politics and International Relations
- Social Anthropology
- Biological Anthropology
- Archaeology
- Assyriology
- Egyptology

Joint subject tracks:
- Politics and Sociology
- Sociology and Social Anthropology
- Politics and Social Anthropology
- Social and Biological Anthropology
- Archaeology and Social Anthropology
- Biological Anthropology and Archaeology
- Assyriology and Egyptology

You take four papers in both Years 2 and 3
It is not possible to change track between Parts IIA and IIB, unless you are switching from a joint subject track to one of the single subjects within it. The availability of some Part IIB papers may be dependent on your having taken the relevant Part IIA paper

Sociology single track

Part IIA
Part IIA consists of three papers:
- Social Theory (SOC 2)
- Modern Societies II: Global Social Problems (SOC 3)
- Concepts and Arguments in Sociology (SOC 4) or Statistics and Methods (SOC 5)

Your fourth paper is chosen from SOC 4 or SOC 5; or a range available in the other tracks including Politics, Social Anthropology and Archaeology (POL3-4, SAN7-13, ARC8, ARC10-33, BAN2-4), History and Philosophy of Science (NatSci Part Ib, Paper 1 or Paper 2), Psychology (PBS 3-4) and History (Part I, Papers 10 or Paper 11)

HSPS Part IIB papers on offer in 2017-18
- You choose three papers from a range of subjects. If you wish, you can offer a dissertation in place of one of these:

  SOC 6: Advanced Social Theory
  SOC 7: Media, Culture and Society
SOC 8: Revolution, War and Militarism

SOC 9: Modern Capitalism

SOC 10: Gender

SOC 12: Modern Britain

SOC 11: Racism, Race and Ethnicity

SOC 13: Health, Medicine and Society

SOC 14: The Sociology of Education - borrowed from Faculty of Education

SOC 15: Criminology, Sentencing and the Penal System - borrowed from Criminology

- Your final paper can be in another sociology subject, one taken from another track: POL13, POL17, SAN7-13, ARC8-33, BAN2-9, or a subject offered in Psychology (PBS6-9)

Sociology Joint subject tracks

If you choose to follow one of the joint subject tracks, you take two papers from a smaller number of options available in each track in each year. In Year 3, you can offer a dissertation as your fourth paper.

Those who select one of the joint tracks in Part IIA have the option to specialise in one of these subjects in Part IIB if they wish.

Politics and Sociology

Part IIA
Part IIA consists of four papers:

- One paper chosen from POL3 (International Organisation) and POL 4 (Comparative Politics)
- One paper chosen from POL 7-8 (History of Political Thought)
- SOC 2 (Social Theory) and SOC 3 (Global Social Problems)

Part IIB
Part IIB consists of four papers:

- Two papers chosen from POL 6, POL10-20
- Two papers chosen from SOC5-15

You can offer a dissertation as your fourth paper (except if POL20 is chosen)

A description of Politics and International Studies papers can be found on the POLIS website: http://www.polis.cam.ac.uk/Undergrad/Current
Sociology and Social Anthropology

Part IIA
Part IIA consists of four papers:

- SAN2 (Comparative Social Analysis)
- Either: SAN3 (Anthropological Theory and Methods) or SAN4 (Anthropology of an Ethnographic Area)
- Two of: SOC 2 (Social Theory), SOC 3 (Global Social Problems), SOC 5 (Statistics and Methods)

Part IIB
Part IIB consists of four papers:

- Two papers chosen from SOC 5-15
- One Paper chosen from SAN5 (Thought, Belief, and Ethics) and SAN6 (Political Economy and Social Transformation) and one paper from SAN5-SAN13

You can offer a dissertation as your fourth paper

A description of Social Anthropology papers can be found on the Social Anthropology website: http://www.socanth.cam.ac.uk/courses/undergraduate-courses-2/